Description

This Velcro fastener, which is 500 mm long, can be used in combination with both the multi roll holder and the C-BOXX holder. The Velcro strip can be used for a range of requirements, such as securing rolls of lining paper. The Velcro fastener extends your loading space, creating a practical fixture to secure your work materials, organising your loading space and guaranteeing quick retrieval of materials, which means that you can save yourself the time and stress of looking for your kit.
